

Comments in Response to Localism Notice of Proposed Rulemaking
MB Docket No. 04-233

I submit the following comments in response to the Localism Notice of Proposed Rulemaking (the "NPRM"), released Jan. 24, 2008, in MB Docket No. 04-233.

The FCC must not force religious and Christian radio stations to take advice from people who may have limited religious knowledge or personal agenda with Christians.

Prayer has been taken from our schools. God is not allowed in our schools. Witness Columbine and Northern Illinois University shootings. And now we face the possibility of seeing God's word being edited or censored by an advisory board that may not share our Christian values.

K-LOVE radio is an example of an excellent Christian radio station. The station lives up to its tag line of "positive and encouraging". It certainly doesn't need help from the FCC. It is one of few stations you can let kids listen to.

For years filth has been spewed over many radio stations with little being done about it. Leave Christian radio alone. It's the only decent thing we have to listen to on the radio. Do not tamper with it.
